

Reconciliation Walk, Robertson Park 29 October 2006

Vincent Reconciliation Group and Claise Brook Catchment Group

Welcome to country by Ben Taylor Cuiermara

Sixty people gathered on Sunday 29th October to hear about the Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal history of Robertson Park.

Paul Willaway spoke about the impact of settlement on indigenous people.

Each person offered a one word commitment to reconciliation

Following the walk, participants assisted CBCG members in planting around the wetland.

as they walked through the cleansing smoke

Our thanks to the Vincent Reconciliation Group for organising this wonderful event which we were very pleased to be part of.
