

Do you want to learn how to use less water and fertiliser, save time and money and enhance your environment?

Good for beginners and experienced gardeners alike.
Audiovisual presentations, displays, demonstrations and samples, giveaways and prizes

Come to this FREE workshop to learn about

- Environmental consequences of current gardening practices
- Understanding and improving your local soils
- Fertiliser-wise tips and tricks
- Lawn establishment and care
- Green-waste recycling
- Suitable plants for you area
- Principles of design
- Waterwise irrigation
- Attracting wildlife to your garden
- Gardening myths and why gardening in WA is different to what is shown on TV

Light refreshments served

DATE: Saturday 7 November

TIME: 2.00-5.00pm

COST: FREE

VENUE: Function Room - Town of Vincent Administration and Civic Centre, 244 Vincent Street, Leederville

PARKING: Loftus Centre Car Park, 99 Loftus Street, Leederville

REGISTRATION

Registration is essential, Book early!
Please register for catering purposes
Telephone hotline: 1300 369 833 or Online at www.greatgardens.info

